Spend a year in India

Look at INDIA!

And don’t just look, join the many people who are gearing up for professional work relating to the Indian subcontinent. Don’t rely on second-hand learning; encounter the cultures for yourself by learning Hindi and Urdu, the biggest of all the South Asian languages — and equip yourself with nationally recognized qualifications for a career engaging with the world’s fastest-growing economy.

The Hindi Urdu Flagship — “HUF” to its friends — gives students an intensive training in Hindi and Urdu and the cultures behind them. Our courses include everything from Bollywood dialogues to the technical language of medicine and business; you will be stretched and challenged like never before, and will learn more than you thought possible!

Spend the third year of your four-year HUF program in India, practicing the skills you’ve been taught by world-class faculty at the University of Texas. Emerge from the program as a global professional, certified by the Language Flagship, ready to use the languages skills that will bring you unique employment possibilities and a whole new vision of the world.
